Life and Death: The Pilgrimage of the Soul $7.95

This book, written to awaken in the readers a sense of their own immortality, was originally part of the ARE (Edgar Cayce organization) Membership Series. Through illustration, explanation and inspiration, it is hoped that this work will increase understanding of the continuity of life sufficiently to bridge the gap between life and death. To take the reader on a journey of the soul, this book will build successively upon work being presented to discover other realms associated with materiality and our relationship to them. It contains an awesome sweep of the soul's experience covering such topics as the pattern for creation, the threefold aspect of body, mind and soul: the universal laws by which we live, and our movement through death and to higher realms.

Letters To His Beloved $16.50

Words are magic! They can be used to awaken as well as instruct. The inquiring mind can reason only that which the heart has prepared it to do. The words in this book are intended to awaken, through the heart, an awareness of human divinity so that once acted upon intelligently, a spiritual healing may result. The messages within these letters hold the promise of personal transformation and the opportunity to change the world around us one person at a time.
